

Abstract:

The invention relates to a polymer composition which comprises at least one at least semicrystalline polymer having no ionic groups and comprises
5 at least one compound with plasticizing properties, and which comprises having 0.1 to 30% by weight of ionic liquid as plasticizer, and also to the use of this polymer composition, and a process for its preparation.